Important Election
Shooting Mussolini
Shoes and a Hair
One Knot Too Hard

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

This important election may take the state away from President Coolidge and take the wheel from the hands of the Republicans.

Butler's election in Massachusetts across the Republican line, is a sign of the fact that his party will be defeated for the Presidency.

MR. COOLIDGE patriotically urges citizens to vote. But what do you think of the fact that he is not voting, merely voting some of his friends?

THE President might have said to his citizens: "If you think I am making a success, believe your country is prospering and want me to continue to lead, vote for me."

A SIXTH attempt to murder Mussolini failed. After the shot was fired, the police collected what was left of the would-be assassin, the lifeless body, and carried it to the morgue.

THE President might have said to his citizens: "If you think I am making a success, believe your country is prospering and want me to continue to lead, vote for me."

Local Betting Switches from Even Money to Five-to-Four Odds Favoring Donahay

If the trend of betting in the city of Marion is to be regarded as a reliable forecast, Governor Donahay will be re-elected in today's balloting.

Bets on the race for United States Senator range from even money to odds of seven to five on Willis.

DONAHEY VETO POLICY DRAWS COOPER FIRE

Republican Candidate for Governor Closes Campaign in Marion

1,000 ATTEND RALLY

Senator and Mrs. Willis, James R. Hopley and J. O. Mills Present

Myers Y. Cooper, Republican candidate for governor, came to Marion Monday night and closed his campaign with an address in which he declared that inefficiency and extravagance of the Donahay administration had depleted the state treasury and announced that if elected to succeed Donahay he will place Ohio's government on a sound, business basis which will hold expenditures below income and lessen the taxpayers' burden.

Profound optimism over prospects for the election of both Cooper and United States Senator Willis in today's voting was the prevailing note in all of the speeches, this sentiment being forcibly expressed by Mr. Cooper in assailing Governor Donahay's veto policy as destructive and obstructive when he said, "There is one final veto to be written and this will be placed on the Donahay administration by the voters Tuesday."

Convincing Talk
Heralded as a convincing, successful business man who has never missed a great event in politics, Mr. Cooper stirred his audience of about 1,000 people, which filled the State auditorium almost to capacity, by giving one of the most able and convincing campaign speeches heard here in many years.

His presentation of arguments on the various issues of the campaign was exceptionally clear and logical and his entire address, lasting more than an hour, was delivered with all the ease and skill of a thoroughly experienced and experienced platform speaker.

The meeting, personally planned only last week by Mr. Cooper at a time when it was thought that he would close his campaign Saturday, was rescheduled in many respects, taking on the aspect of a Republican love feast before the voters Tuesday.

Executive and His Wife To Visit Old Neighbors; Train Hits Auto
Northampton, Mass., Nov. 2.—With flashlight flaring and cameras clicking, President and Mrs. Coolidge in the Mount Vernon train left for Marion, Ohio, on a "straight Republican" ticket.

They were met at the station by a reception committee, headed by Acting Mayor Samuel Dyer.

They went to the voting rooms in Memorial Hall by auto. A large crowd was on hand.

The president voted ballot 379. On the way out of the voting room the president and his wife stopped to exchange a few words with an old friend, Allen Clark, a voting inspector.

Accompanied by a crowd of 15 mounted state police, the Coolidges went to their home on Massena way, a two-family house, where they were greeted by Mrs. Coolidge's mother, Mrs. Elvira Goodhue.

Shop Workers Are Expected To Boost Number of Ballots

Election Board Officials Say Morning Results Not an Indication That Total Will Fall Below Average for State and County Elections

LIGHT ALL OVER STATE, FORECAST
Unofficial Reports Throw Little Light on Outcome of Elections; Weather Conditions Unusually Favorable Throughout Ohio Today

PLEAS of election officials and party managers to induce citizens to vote early today failed to yield results in Marion County today, according to reports from various precincts collected shortly before noon today, showing that only about a fifth of the normal number of ballots had been cast at that time.

This is not taken by election authorities as an indication that the total vote will fall below the average for state and county elections when the balloting comes to a close at 6:30 tonight. A large majority of shop employees were expected to cast their ballots during the noon hour and later in the day when most of the factories were to suspend operations an hour earlier than usual to give their men ample opportunity for visiting the polls.

It was in the districts where shop employees reside that the early vote was lightest, the percentage running considerably higher in the Fourth ward and up-town districts.

While the campaign which closed here Monday night was marked by unusual quiet and apparent apathy during its earlier stages, interest has increased by leaps and bounds during the last few days, which is taken as assurance of a vote of average size or possibly above average.

Final preparations were completed today by election board officials for receiving and tabulating returns at their headquarters on E. Center st. No advance reports are to be received by telephone. Tabulations will be made at the board's office directly from the returns of the precinct officials, so that the totals when compiled will promptly provide the final and official count.

State Counted First
Instructions from the office of the Secretary of State, head of Ohio's election organization, are that the State totals shall be counted first, followed by the local counts.

In Columbus, a normally heavy vote was indicated, with about 25 per cent of the eligible citizens casting their ballots by noon.

Cuyahoga Light
In Cuyahoga County, forenoon balloting was reported as light, most of the interest being manifested in a large Cleveland bridge bond issue and other local questions.

Franklin County, the birthplace of Mr. Coolidge, had cast 30 per cent of its potential vote by noon, with high interest reported in a hot contest for sheriff.

Predictions of victory were varied today by democratic and republican campaign leaders, including Charles R. Frederickson, Corborton, and Thomas E. Dwyer, chairman of the republican and democratic state campaign committees, respectively.

Unusual lack of interest, seemingly, throughout the campaign in all parts of Ohio, the non-committal attitude of regions of voters and the relatively light redistribution of Buckeye State voters this fall, combined, however, to leave the outcome of the day's voting in doubt.

Pre-Election Forecasts of Light Vote Borne Out

Reports from Mansfield, indicated less than a fourth of the registered vote cast in Richland County, with the heaviest balloting reported lightly favoring the democracy.

Less than a fifth of the normal vote had been cast at noon in Marion, with the unofficial reports indicating Donahay, Willis, and Brooks. Fletcher the favorites.

One of the lightest votes in history was reported from Muskingum County while reports from Youngstown indicated a fair early vote with interest shown in a bond bond issue.

"Presidential Lightning" Hangs Over Nation Today

New York, Nov. 2.—The far famed bolt of "presidential lightning" hangs over America today as the nation stages its big parade to the polls.

With every state race made involved in the question of gubernatorial and congressional elections, political issues in both major parties were waiting the result, closely in the belief that some change in leadership might be made to meet the White House in 1929.

All leaders virtually agreed that presidential aspirations will rise or fall on today's elections. The interest centers chiefly in the contests in New York, Massachusetts and Ohio.

Mr. Smith's spectacular bid for a fourth term as governor drew attention away from the race of Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., republican, for reelection over Justice Robert F. Wagner.

Tammage candidate, H. Smith wins over the aggressive Ogden L. Mills, leaders of both parties expect him to be a powerful candidate for the democratic presidential nomination in 1928, whereas a defeat would wash him from the national arena.

Even more closely political eyes are on Massachusetts, where President Coolidge injected himself into the campaign in behalf of his friend, Senator William M. Butler. If Butler is defeated by former Senator David I. Walsh, democrat, the leaders undoubtedly will view it as a direct blow.

BROTHERS ARE BADLY BURNED IN CAR CRASH

Hospital Authorities Expect Two Men To Recover; Locked Wheel Given Blame

THOMAS P. PINE

Thomas, 25, and Arthur Pine, 18, of Canton of the city, are in City Hospital today suffering from serious burns which they received about 6:30 o'clock this morning when the wheel of the Ford touring car in which they were riding, locked, causing the car to dive into the ditch and a lighted lantern which they carried with them, to ignite the gasoline, resulting in an explosion, and fire. Thomas Pine, who was driving, was the most seriously burned of the two, but it is thought by hospital authorities that both will recover. They were burned about the lower limbs and hands.

Arthur Pine crawled from beneath the car, halted a passing automobile and later a C. D. & M. truck, in which the two were removed to the hospital. The car, it is said, was completely destroyed.

They were returning from the Owen quarry, where they are employed at night, to their home, along the Wheeling River, when the accident occurred. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Pine.

Morris Nadel, held as a material witness, has been positively identified as the stranger who was seen near Mellett at a dance in the Molly Stark Club, the night the publisher was murdered. Mellett told International News Service.

A man, whose name has not been revealed, came to Mellett and said that he had recognized Nadel as the stranger when he saw the suspect's photograph in the paper.

1925-26 SCHOOL COST AMOUNTED TO $356,902.05

Report Compiled by Supt. Jesse H. Mason Lists All Expenditures

It cost Marion $356,902.05 for the education of its youth during the school year of 1925-26.

This figure combined with $93,985, representing debt service charges, brings the total expenditures for the school year up to $450,887.05.

Receipts for the year amounted to $447,705.01, showing that the board closed the school year with a budget deficit of $3,182.04.

This deficit, however, was more than covered by a reimbursement of $1,680.02, received from the state.

This is revealed in a complete report of all expenditures and receipts compiled by Supt. Jesse H. Mason and presented to the City Board of Education at its meeting last night at Harding High School.

Tabulation
Business administration cost $2,342.93, the report shows. Costs listed in the report are as follows:

Business administration — salaries, $2,124.03; supplies, $154.17; cleaning and miscellaneous, $164.73.

Educational administration — Office of Superintendent of schools, $47,119.57; attendance and enumeration, $1,559.99.

Supervision — Supervisors, $2,282.50; Harding High office, $1,472.15; grade and junior high principals, $5,207.70.

FATE OF PASTOR MAY REVERT TO DISTANT COURT

Minister Charged with Murder Seeks Change of Venue for His Trial

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 2.—The fate of the Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist minister charged with the murder July 17 of D. E. Clippes, wealthy lumberman, may revert finally to the hands of a federal court.

That was the prediction of defense counsel for the pastor here today as arguments were continued from yesterday on a motion for a change of venue based on the charge that "Catholics and Catholics" had conspired against the militant preacher whose case was called to trial yesterday. The prosecution does not share in this prediction.

William "Wild Bill" McLean, one of the special state attorneys, pointed out today that Norris, tried in 1912 on an arson charge, was not granted a change of venue, was acquitted and an effort will be made today to read into the records of the present case the 1912 motion as conclusive to the present motion, McLean said.

Fifty witnesses for the defense on its motion were yet to be heard today. The high lights in yesterday's testimony against the motion was the blank denial of prosecution that Tarrant County was particularly hostile to the minister.

Latest Returns Will Be Flashed on Screen at The Star's Party Tonight
HOW do you think the election today will come out?

Will be the next governor? And, the next senator? And, on down the line.

You can find out all these things tonight at The Star office when The Star's big election party is held.

The Star has arranged to get Marionites the best possible view of the election returns. A large screen will be placed in the hall of the American Hotel Building, just north of the Star office and returns will be projected upon this screen from The Star.

Every effort is being made to give special and up-to-the-minute service on this election. The Star's staff of reporters, trained in the collection of election news, will be at the election board office and in The Star editorial rooms.

As soon as returns are received at the board of elections office they will be relayed to The Star and collected to the crowd.

A special leased telegraph wire will connect The Star with election headquarters in Columbus and as rapidly as returns are compiled they will be received in Marion.

Through the courtesy of the Pure Oil Co. and the C. D. and M. Electric Co. lights at the City station, corner will be dimmed so that election "fans" will be given brighter lighting upon the screen.

The Star's big party will start at 7:30 o'clock. It is on hand for the latest returns. And, if you are unable to get downtown for the party, don't hesitate to call the phone, calling 2114, The Star, for returns.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Rich Indian Sees New York as Court Battle Goes on

Guardian of "The Chief" Refuses to Give Approval to Gift

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Jackson Barnett was happy before oil gushers made him a multimillionaire. He had to have a good time starting on his own, dressed in a blanket, riding his horse, training and smoking his cornucopia. With the coming of his wealth came marriage, litigation, and funds and travel. In fact, so concerned and involved have become his affairs that "The Chief," now 75, no longer attempts to keep track of them.

His latest court suit, in New York, is at least a dozen. But he is not worried about it. He forgets it by taking in the sights of the metropolis. The government brought the latest suit through attorneys for Barnett's guardian, against the Baptist Home Mission Society, which is said to operate the Baccine School for Indians in Oklahoma. It comes about because Barnett decided to give the Indian school $250,000, establishing a trust fund. Elmer S. Bailey, appointed his guardian by the Oklahoma courts, refused his approval. Hence the present suit.

Mrs. Barnett, a pretty white woman who was married to him seven years ago, shortly after Barnett became the world's richest Indian, is more worried than her husband. She complains that Barnett has "gone off" and she has lost her husband's funds but her half-million dollar fortune, her home in Hollywood and her handsome automobile. Bailey also has tied up their income, she says with the consequence that as the wife of a multimillionaire she has to borrow money for hotel bills.

The five-cent piece commonly called the nickel is seventy-five per cent copper.

Supl. Mason's Report

That, in brief, is the substance of a report presented to the City Board of Education last night by Supl. John H. Mason. The report was prepared after a careful study of the tax rates in various cities and was taken in part from the report of a survey conducted by the Bureau of Education of Ohio State University.

Sixty of the 91 cities mentioned in the report levy higher tax rates for schools, while but 28 have a higher total tax rate. The percentage column shows that the Marion Board of Education received 297 per cent of the total tax rate.

The tabulation clearly shows that the boards of education in 73 of the 91 Ohio communities received a larger percentage of the total taxes paid than did the local Board of Education, during the last tax year.

Martin's Ferry Higher

Martin's Ferry with a per capita tax wealth of $1,016.07 and a population of 11,000 leads the list of 91 schools in the table with a tax rate for schools amounting to 11.25.

In Marion with a per capita tax wealth of $1,513.03 and a population of 23,087 the tax rate for schools is 8.74. Bucyrus with a per capita tax wealth of $1,310.33 and a population of 12,000 has a school tax rate of 11.55.

At Willard 79 per cent of all tax collected go for the operation of schools. In Bucyrus 42.9 per cent is turned over to the schools and in Marion the per cent is 36.7. Bellefonte schools receive 27.8 per cent of the taxes collected and is at the bottom of the list.

The couple was united in marriage October 31, 1874, the ceremony being performed in the dining room of the Hainsburg home, one of the leading homes in Harlan county.

To this union five children, four of whom survive, were born. They are: Mrs. Margaret McQuinn, Toledo, O.; C. W. Hainsburg, Jr., Toledo, O.; G. W. Hainsburg, Jr., Toledo, O.; and Mrs. G. T. Tallman, Ada, Okla.

Despite their advanced ages, Mr. and Mrs. Hainsburg are enjoying good health and actively manage and assist with the affairs of their farm.

Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the committee of Harlan county, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hainsburg, the committee discussed the water rates of the city.

The new rate which is about 11% lower than the one filed with the Utilities Commission was suggested by Engineer Pierce, who has been in the city for several days checking over the matter.

Persson Boxing Cleverly When Disqualified by Referee for Foul

By DAVIS J. WALSH
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Having forfeited his membership card in the benevolent and protective order of voluntee pallbearers, this writer can not consistently predict, without endangering his amateur standing, that the heavyweight championship of the world is due to go on a long journey.

But, after what happened at Madison square garden last night, he will venture to recognize this championship as a distinct possibility.

I don't mind admitting that I wandered out into the night greatly enamored of Harry Persson, Sweden's entry in the heavyweight championship.

Harry didn't win, at that. But being from a rush of authority to the head, Referee James Connelley disqualified Persson in the fifth round and awarded the fight to Bud Gorman on a foul. It was the only way Bud could have won, having a flat iron in either hand.

The blow that killed Persson was viciously low. So was the one that immediately preceded it, and Harry had none in return.

Old Mr. Morgan, of the Advertiser, He had plenty of his fast one but he was out of a place without a foul.

Connelley, I would say, that James DeForest must impress his name with this fact that it is against the rules to use a flat iron in the ring. He has fought with a flat iron, except the matter of an adequate left hook. DeForest almost killed Persson into the title, but in a few short months, he has brought Persson further along than the man with the flat iron.

The Swede looked the part and no mistake. He had stepped Gorman's opening barrage of punches and then worked Bud with three rights straight from the shoulder.

The majority of Persson's best punches were aimed at the head. He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter. He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter.

He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter. He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter.

The Swede was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter. He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter.

He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter. He was a real fighter, and he was a real fighter.

cool and won every round but the fifth. That was one way for him to win, it was long enough for him to win, it was long enough for him to win.

The customers deserved the fight, but to no purpose. A customer, you see, has no rights except at the boxoffice. With rare presence of mind, they gave him the right of way there.

Patsy's Patter

Gossip and Guesses in the World of Sport

By Pat Murphy

THE passing of Harry Greb last week removed from the fight game one of the most "colorful" fighters since the day of the immortal John L. Sullivan. Greb was a crowd pleaser whether he won or lost. His conduct outside the ring was never a shining example for the American youth, but his willingness to fight any one, any time, won for him a great personal following. When a fight was suggested to Greb he never quibbled about price or who his opponent was to be. His only questions were: "where?" and "when?" After he had defeated every man at his own weight who could be persuaded to fight him, he went out after the light heavies and the heavyweights. Among his victims were the present heavy-champion, Gene Tunney and Tommy Gibbons, whose knockout at Tunney's hands badly hurt the latter into the fight which gave him his present crown.

There is a story, also, that Greb gave Jack Dempsey such a trouncing in their heavy championship training camp that he was barred from again sparring with the king pin.

AND speaking of Tunney. How long will "Gentleman Gene" rule the roost? Not for a long time has a new champion ascended the throne with so many "logical" opponents in the field. Jack Sharkey of Boston pushed himself into position No. 1 when he battered the ancient Harry Wills into a foul victory at the Brooklyn hall park recently. But can Sharkey defeat his fellow townsman, Jimmy MacLoney? Or can he take Jack Delaney, the present light heavy champion? Paul Berlebach from whom Delaney took the crown, is getting bigger every day, and should furnish Gene with a real battle. Then there is the swelling face of Jack Dempsey in the background. Remember Gene did NOT knock Dempsey out. If Dempsey should decide to fight again, he would not be handicapped by the adage that they never come back; for he probably thinks that he has never been away. We do not think that Jack will ever try to regain his lost laurels, but should he decide to do so the fight fans can look for a better battle from him than he put up at Philadelphia in September.

THE changes in the managerial situation will give members of the store league plenty of fuel this winter. "Stuffy" McElmish has taken unto himself a most unenviable job at Philadelphia. We do not think that McElmish is a better baseball general than the man he succeeds. Art Fletcher did as well as any man could do with one pitcher, a brace of good catchers and an outfield. And what did he have, beside Carlson in the box; Hendline and Wilson behind the bat and Williams, Mokane, Leach and Harper in the outfield? The less said about the Philly infield the better. What Philadelphia needs is not so much a new manager as an owner who can be shown that buying a real ballplayer occasionally is a business proposition.

DONIE BUSH should prove a good bat at Pittsburgh. If Barney Dreyfuss lets him manage the team. And it is our hunch that Donie will be the leader or will resign his job. He knows more baseball than McKechnie, and he will be the only man in uniform who will manage the team. The

Three Undefeated Ohio Teams Face Heavy Tasks

Muskingum Meets Kenyon, Wooster Tackles Denison, Wesleyan Plays Wittenberg

Ohio University and Ohio Northern Expected To Provide More Than Light Entertainment at Athens, Too; Western Reserve Booked at Akron

CLEVELAND, Nov. 2.—While the Floradora sextet is now relegated to the time when a boy's long pants came from his father's old suit instead of the tailors, the Ohio Conference gridiron sextet has three of its members threatened with similar oblivion.

Of the six undefeated teams, Oberlin, St. Xavier and Dayton do not play, while the other trio face contests that threaten their unstained record. Muskingum, expecting a Turk in Kenyon, may find a football tartar; Ohio Wesleyan hopes to regain some of its lost laurels at the expense of Wittenberg, while the 1926 model of the Wooster machine might encounter a puncture in the Denison eleven.

The latter seems best fitted or opposed to keep its undefeated strain clear, for Denison, instead of being a red wave, has shown itself only a crimson trickle. The game is scheduled for Greenville and Coach Livingston's squad is still on its own home grounds, but the Wooster drive plus that beautiful defense of the black and gold indicates another prospective triumph for Coach Murray.

At New Concord, the Muskingum outfit plays Kenyon. The Episcopalians have gone through all the disruption of a Russian revolution, but now seem to Pirates won the world's series title a year ago in spite of McKechnie, and should have repeated this year. Bush will have a fighting team, if he has to do the fighting himself. One of McKechnie's drawbacks was the fact that he was too easy going. And the presence of Fred Clarke on the bench did not tend to help the morale of the club. Were Clarke in sole charge of the team this year the Pirates' record would have been repeated. Did not authority butt he Pirates' chances this year.

WRESTLING as a sport was killed in Marion some years ago by the wrestlers themselves. But Barnum's old saw about the American people loving to be fooled held good for a long time, but there was a limit. Marion, in common with other cities of the country, stood for hippodromes until they became too rank. Then the horse straw was applied and the carnival bark was broken. However, wrestling as a sport, when conducted as it should be, is as interesting as any one the calendar. The system of M. Haft, sport promoter of Columbus, seems to be putting the sport back on its feet. S. R. O. for a wrestling show in Columbus is a common occurrence, and wrestlers from all over the country are anxious to show there. One change in a wrestler's contract in Columbus is the promoter's right to withhold a wrestler's purse if he is guilty of stalling. If this system had been in vogue in all the wrestling centers, the wrestling trust would never have got a start. There is a possibility that efforts will be made to revive this sport in Marion this winter if such an attempt is made, it is to be hoped that the "no stalling" clause will be a part of the terms before the wrestlers are allowed to show here.

COLGATE BIDS FOR EAST HONORS

While a Navy substitute spoiled Colgate's chances of demanding a place in the eastern football sun on its record of victories, the Colgate eleven still hopes to receive consideration when the rating of the teams is attempted at Thanksgiving time. This through victories over Syracuse No. 13, and Columbia Nov. 25. Above are two stars of the Colgate team.

Dempsey Popularity Tough Tournaments Clark's Army

By NORMAN E. BROWN
UNLESS sentiment in favor of Dempsey wanes with the passing of time Gene Tunney, new heavyweight king, will be forced to give the ex-champion the first crack at the title he once held. That is the current news.

Dempsey in the new class, is more popular in New York (Tunney's home town) than Tunney is as champion of the world. This is not a person of belief. The question of popularity was decided in an emphatic manner the other night when the two men were called in an emphatic manner to receive championship belts. The great ovation given Jack and the mixture of hoos and cheers that greeted Tunney spoke for themselves.

But aside from this actual demonstration it is apparent that Dempsey's sportsmanlike during the period of training for his boxing fight, his action in the ring, his generous praise of Tunney since that night and his refusal to cook up alibi for his poor showing have won for him the hearts of thousands of fans who disliked him during his championship days.

Another interesting slant on the situation is the air of naturalness in Dempsey's manner. It was Dempsey, the champion, selected to act the part, who appeared in public during his heyday. Now Dempsey, no longer pestered with the responsibilities of the crown—or with a publicity hungry manager—is himself. The public has sensed this and are finding out the real man in him.

Dempsey, in a way, is still the outstanding heavyweight. Tunney draws the glamour. He is the new "boy" in the fight world. But the old crowd seems loathe to forget Dempsey, which ought to make Dempsey feel mighty danged happy.

BOBBY JONES, British open and U. S. open golf champ, laid stated that he probably will not defend his British crown next season as a trip to Europe would interfere with the pursuit of his knowledge of law at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga. ALUMNI DEMAND JONES RESIGN

Coach's Conservative Grid-Iron System Cause of Trouble

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—Rumors of the resignation of the Yale coach, who today when members of the Alumni Association openly demanded that the football coach resign.

A New Haven newspaper, awaiting support, also took up the charge against Yale, but at the same time, admitted that his job as Yale coach was as hard as he could be to retain it because of his conservatism. The alumni are said to be at odds with Jones on his choice of players and his conservative gridiron system.

Athletics' Banquet Rings Final Curfew to Baseball Activities of 1926 Squad

50 Present at Affair Held in Eagles' Hall; Committee Reappointed To Handle Business of Marion Athletics Next Season

FIFTY players, officials and fans of Marion and vicinity last night attended the banquet at Eagles' hall which officially brought to a close the 1926 baseball season of the Marion Athletics, claimants of the semi-pro championship of Ohio.

The board of directors of the athletic association arranged the banquet, given in honor of the members of the best baseball team that has ever carried the honors of this city on the diamond.

Pres. Charles Klunk of the Marion Athletic Association, after praising the members of the team, the management, and the baseball committee, turned the meeting over to Roy Rice, who acted as toastmaster during the evening.

Every person in attendance was called upon to "get up and assert himself" before the meeting closed.

Fire Chief McFarland was the first to haul the team and management for the excellent work during the summer. He was followed by other ardent fans who spoke only of the great baseball nine placed on the diamond this year by the Marion Athletic Association.

Arson Pickering, a member of the city park commission, and one of the most enthusiastic baseball fans in Marion, when told that the grass and weeds at Lincoln Park had only been cut once during the season, admitted the fact and announced that the commission was doing all in their power to aid in putting the diamond into shape. He promised that the weeds would be mowed more than once next season so that Glen Price would not get lost in the outfield.

Members of the team were called upon to "stand up and be seen if not heard" and were given hearty applause as they followed instructions.

Umpire E. C. Macken, introduced by the toastmaster as the "man who had the dirty job," told of the troubles facing an umpire when he took his place behind the pitcher to officiate a game. Manager Francis Bacon of the Marion Athletics, after praising the ability of his men in coming through in the last few innings of a baseball game, stated that the club had been invited to enter a league in Southwestern Ohio during next season and had also received invitations from various other leagues.

In discussing arrangements for next year, however, Pres. Klunk and Manager Bacon announced that no plans had yet been formulated.

It was announced that the same committee of the association, composed of Paul Costner, Harry Hastings, and Norris Crissinger, would be in charge of arranging the schedule and handling other important matters during the season next year as they did this summer.

Among the guests present last night were "Chic" Skelley, manager of the Orange Indians grid team and one of his chief players, Chief Long Time Sleep of LaHar.

The meeting was adjourned following a rising vote of thanks to those who made the banquet possible.

Brown University played through entire game against Yale with first eleven men that took the field. Which proves lots of things but primarily the fact that Brown has a good football team.

Dugan's bowlers and Bradleys rolled in the Y. M. C. A. league bowling matches last night. The Y. M. C. A. bowlers, who are the strongest in the league, held on to the top position when the Smart and Waddell team slipped into the second place by winning three consecutive games from Smart & Waddell. The first and third games were won by Dugan's outfit, but the second game was a tie. In the second contest, Smart and Waddell led the Bentz team, but they were forced to take three straight on nose.

One of the most interesting games of the season were won last night by the Smart and Waddell team. They won the first game by a score of 134 to 100, the second by 144 to 100, and the third by 158 to 100. The Bentz team, who were the favorites, were forced to take three straight on nose.

COACH SHAPLEY GETS HELP AT NAVY

ALLAN SHAPLEY

CAPT. WICKHORST V. COACH INGRAM

Coach and two stars of the U. S. Naval Academy eleven. For three years Allan Shapley has been one of the outstanding stars of the Navy football eleven—the country in fact. Once more the Annapolis team is being built around him. And this year Coach Ingram is counting on Shapley, a tiny fellow of 150 pounds, to make a great running mate for Shapley and share the burden of carrying the ball. Tom Eddy, veteran tackle, is another man counted to shine again. Eddy teams with Capt. Wickhorst at the tackle posts.

JACK DELANEY BOOKED FOR BOUT AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 2—Jack Delaney, light heavyweight champion of the world, has been signed by Promoter Neils Viernup for a 10-round decision match at the Coliseum here Nov. 26. It was announced today. His opponent has not yet been selected. The fight will be an "added attraction" for visitors here to see the Army-Navy football game, the boxing show being staged on the eve of the great service classic.

Johnny Riske, of Cleveland, looms as the most likely opponent of Delaney. Bud Gorman, of St. Paul, and Harry Persson, of Sweden, also are being considered.

A lazy man is of no more use in the world than a dead man, and he takes up more room.

SKULL PRACTICE

Clark Griffith announces that new players acquired during 1934 and back to be acquired this winter will make Senators a championship team next season. They're betting six other American League managers to the same track.

"Confidence Needed in Rugby," says headline over story discussing the game. Which same holds true for bridge, kelly pool, baseball and red dog.

BASERAIL PILOTS HAVE THANKLESS JOBS. ACCORDING TO AN EASTERN SCRIBE WHICH PUTS THEM IN THE SAME CLASS WITH THE SPORT WRITERS—EXCEPT THAT THE DIAMOND SHARPS DON'T HAVE TO CHOOSE ALL-AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAMS.

William Weigler, Cubs owner, is enlarging seating capacity of his park—to take care of the new friends the club made by causing Alexander, probably.

"Frosty" Peters, successor to Red Grange as Illinois grid star, is said to be working as a city fireman at Champagne, Ill. Which is either accurate news or an indication that the local firemen's union has a good press agent.

DR. OTTO PELTZER, GERMAN MIDDLE DISTANCE RUNNER, HAS TURNED DOWN AN OFFER OF $50,000 FOR AN AMERICAN TOUR TO REMAIN A SCHOOL TEACHER AT $75 A MONTH. PERHAPS PELTZER WAS TIPPED OFF THAT MOST OF THE $50,000 WOULD GO TO THE PROMOTER.

MULLINS DENIES LATZO'S ARM NOW PARALYZED

New York, Nov. 2—Denial that Pete Latzo, welterweight boxing champion, has suffered paralysis of his right arm and would never fight again was made today by Paddy Mullins, his manager, after a telephone conversation with the Latzo home. Latzo cut his hand six weeks ago and blood poisoning developed.

Diagrams is the lack of a capable forward cover and Coach Locke is trying to find one. If he succeeds, it will mean that the Akron secondary defense will have to be testing back and forth, trying to outguess the red and white quarterback, for Reserve has a tendency to move with an aimless directness—to say the least—rather than to pass the ball to the open players.

Case, in meeting Hiram at Cleveland should have little trouble and Coach Fletcher will have the opportunity of giving his Reserve strength some experience.

Marletta vs. Otterbein
The conference ladies are entertaining at home this weekend, when Marletta takes on Otterbein in a football game which promises to be interesting in that Marletta may win its first Ohio conference game. The Westerville squad is a slight favorite, but not enough to affect the final score.

At Tiffin, Baldwin-Wallace meets Heidelberg and is given the edge simply due to the annual custom of the Percuss to win the last games of the season after dropping the first few.

The northern part of the state opposes the southern end when Mount Union travels to Oxford for its annual meeting with Miami. Here are two eleven that are overloading with offensive power, but none too strong on the defense and unless something unusual occurs, it will be a high tally game, with the Miami crew slightly the choice.

Real glory springs from the silent conquest of ourselves; and without that, the conqueror is naught but the veriest slave.

Here's my smoke-platform

A JIMMY-PIPE with an ample bowl. A tobacco that is mild and mellow, yet not "mollycoddle," if you get me—and you do. You know what I mean . . . mild, yet with plenty of body to let you know you are smoking. A tobacco that smokes cool.

A tobacco that is fragrant in the package, to whet the appetite, and equally fragrant as you smoke it. A tobacco that does not bite the tongue or parch the throat. A tobacco so wonderfully satisfying that you are kept busy smoking and reloading, all day long.

There's only one tobacco in the whole wide world that I know of which meets this platform. Its name is "Prince Albert" and I claim it really is the prince of smokes. More men smoke this tobacco than any other brand, which is important and likewise true.

If you are still outside the fold of contented jimmy-pipers, buy a tidy red tin of P. A. today. No matter how satisfied you appear to be with your present brand, try Prince Albert. I promise you a smoke-experience that will be new and delightfully different.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidor, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

HULSE TENDERS
RESIGNATION TO LOCAL CHAPTER

Mrs. George Geran To Be Temporary Red Cross
Chairman

Guy H. Hulse, who for the last two years has served as chairman of the Marion County Chapter, Red Cross, tendered his resignation to the board of directors at the meeting in the Red Cross headquarters last night.

Action on the resignation will be taken at the next meeting of the board which will be held immediately following the completion of the Tenth Annual Roll Call.

Mr. Hulse's place will be filled temporarily by the vice chairman, Mrs. George Geran.

During the last two years, while under the direction of Mr. Hulse, the local chapter of Red Cross has installed and carried out a system of nutrition work and health education under the able direction of Mrs. Louise K. Warner. The local chapter is the only Red Cross organization in the state that has successfully carried out such a program.

It was also under the regime of Mr. Hulse that the Women's Voluntary Clubs agreed to furnish the salary for one nurse and the community now has the services of three nurses and health experts. The health service is one of the features of the local chapter.

Mr. Hulse's resignation was presented to the board on the eve of his departure from Marion to take up his duties as field secretary of the Service Extension Department of the Retail Credit Men's National association.

Following a dinner in his honor at the Harding Hotel Wednesday night Mr. Hulse will leave for the east where he will immediately assume his duties.

Mr. Hulse served the Red Cross in various capacities during his five years as a member of the board of directors.
